Welcome and Introductions

Dr. Stewart Martin and Dr. Cheryl Lawson, called the meeting to order and the December 04, 2017 minutes were approved as posted.

State OMD Committee Update:

Dr. Martin reported the last meeting was canceled. The previous meeting the group discussed the I-99 proposal to no longer have I-99 courses being taught in Virginia; classes will either be EMT Advanced or Paramedic. If you already have I-99 certification that will remain valid until 2019. The chair of the State Medical Directors committee will change January 7, 2018 at 10:30am at OEMS.

Old Business:

Annual TEMS/PEMS Reviews and Reports

○ PEMS: Cheryl Lawson, MD

- The new protocols will come out in January 2018 and will be put in effect March 2018. Funding support from the rotary to provide an interactive app to download the protocols to the smartphone.
- There are staffing changes at PEMS:
 - Amy Ash – Community Health Coordinator

- Yusef Craig – EMS Clinical Coordinator
- Evette King – Business Manager's last day will be December 15th; position still open.
- TEMS: Stewart Martin, MD
 - The mortgage has been paid off for the TEMS Council, Inc.
 - PI Committee has been reorganized and will be analyzing and utilizing this data in more effective ways
 - There are staffing changes at TEMS:
 - Jay Porter will become the new part time field coordinator to serve Western Tidewater
 - Michael McMahon will become the new full time PI and Education Coordinator for TEMS
 - Tonya Cook has become the Office Manager for TEMS
- Other - Drug Box Changes:
- HandTevy Update: At last year's Joint OMD meeting the group wanted to move forward with pricing to add the Handley system to the ambulances in the region. It has been suggested that more research be done to see how many are needed in the area and come back to the committee with a new options and a purchase plan.

New Business:

- 2018 Joint OMD Date December 13, 2018 @ PEMS
- CHKD is now a recognized Level 1 Pediatric Trauma Center
- PEMS annual awards will be May 19, 2018
- PEMS will be offering a Critical Care class soon
